

The Chas. Monson Co.

READY FOR...

Holiday Trade

THE week days till Christmas are none too many for your comfort as buyers. Will you trade now, when the stocks are at their best and choosing is easy, or wait for the eleventh hour crush and rush?

Holiday Novelties

The center aisle show growing, never prettier little Novelties for gifts. No use trying to enumerate too many.

See special 25c. Table.

Holiday Handkerchiefs.

The greatest gathering of Holiday Handkerchiefs we ever had. Just as much care in the selection—No job lots or haphazard purchases—50c., 75c., $1.00 to $3.50.

Holiday Gloves

Men's, Women's and Children's—Never so good value or so many to choose from. Try our "Foster Street" Kid Gloves, at $1.50 a pair—instead of $2.00—Women's Pique Gloves, at $1.00—that cannot be matched less than $1.25—We know it!

Misses AND Women's Coats

The maker thought there would be no winter. He passed us the goods as if only dog days ahead.

100 Boucle and Kersey Jackets, newest of this season's styles, scarcely two of a kind, $5.00, $7.00, $9.00 and up to $17.00. That were $8.00, $10.00, $12.00 and up to $25.00.

Bed Blankets

Who said wool prices were going up? Or labor? You can't prove either by these Blankets—We never knew a time when so few dollars would buy so much of high Blanket quality.

11-4 Blankets, $2.25, $2.75, $3.50, $3.98, $5.00, $5.98, $6.98, $7.50, etc.

Handle them, put them on the scales—That's the test we want you to make!

The Chas. Monson Co.

ONCE AGAIN!

Thanksgiving is very near us! These are some of the things you need.

Mrs. Taylor's Celebrated Plum Pudding in Bowls.
Mrs. Taylor's Jars of Mince, the richest of the rich.
R. & R. in 2 lb cans, 50c each.
R. & R. in 1 lb cans, 30c each.
Franco-American, 2 lb cans 50c.
Franco-American, 1 lb cans 35c.
Choice Fruit Cakes, 1 lb packets 25c.
Seeded Raisins, Sultana Raisins, Cleaned Currants, fine bunch and Loose Muscatel Raisins.
Jancy Pink Malaga Grapes.
New Layer Figs, Pulled Figs.
Glaze Cherries and Apricots, Stuffed Prunes.
Poultry Dressing and all kinds of Herbs.
We offer genuine Full Cream Vermont Dairy Creams, looking like it or near it for sale in this city. A fine Sage Cheese, Roquefort and Blue Cheese.
New Grenoble Pecans, Filberts and Paper Shell Almonds.
Highest grades Java and Mocha Coffee.
Cooking Brandy and Cooking Wines.
Bottled Oiler and Sweet Oiler.
Choice French Claret and Sauternes, Champagnes, Cordon.
Very Old Brandy and Old Whiskies.
Manhattan, V. ermouth, Martini and other Cocktails.

JOHNSON & BRO.,

411 and 413 State st., cor. Court.
Open Evenings until 8 1/2 o'clock.

LOOK IN OUR WINDOW

FOR

PIE TIMBER

New England, None-such and Eagle Mince Meat.

Evaporated Peaches, Apricots, Prunes and Raspberries, all new goods and finest quality.

Canned Peaches, Cherries and Pineapple,--all make fine Pies.

The Famous Dudley Packing Company's Pumpkin and Squash.

And look at those fine Cape Cod Cranberries.

Come inside, we can tempt your appetite with loads of good things too numerous to mention.

Boston Grocery,

N. A. FULLERTON, PROPRIETOR,
926 Chapel Street, corner Temple.
Telephone 450.
Branch Store, 121 Chapel st., cor. Howe.

THE S. KIMBERLY CO.

THE VERY BEST IN CHURCH ST.

Gas for Cooking.

SAFE, CONVENIENT, CLEAN, ECONOMICAL.
Ranges, Stoves and Appliances
For cooking in great variety; also HEATERS
Sold, set up and warranted, by the undersigned.
A limited number of the "PERFECT" RANGE,
With or without water backs, are offered at much below cost to close up the season's stock.

The New Haven Gas Light Co.,
No. 30 CHURCH STREET.

FALL--1895--STYLES.

Large line Wilton, Moquette, Body and Tapestry Brussels, Westminster and Ingrain Carpets, Linoleums and Oil Cloth.

Turkish Carpets and Rugs, Smyrna Carpets and Rugs, Japanese Carpets and Rugs.

Ingrain Art Square Drapery Curtains, Lace and Muslin.

H. B. PERRY, 914 Chapel Street.

CAKES MADE FROM Grandma's Pancake Flour

Just fit the palate.

Easy to Make, Quick to Bake, Delicious to Take.

411 & 413 State St., Cor. Court.

THE BROADWAY COMEDIANS

The Broadway Comedians in "Town Topics," a brand new farce-comedy, interpreted by a number of time-tried favorites, is the attraction to be presented for the benefit tendered to the New Haven Letter Carriers' association. The first act is genuine comedy, pure and wholesome; in this act a slight plot is seen to make its appearance, but, as the author says, there is not plot enough to give anyone a headache. The second act is a correct representation of Broadway, New York city, at the Hoffman house, scenery for which is carried complete by the company, is devoted almost entirely to individual specialties and big combinations by the company. "The Bloomer Girls," "The Bowery Boys and Girls," "The Four Country Rubes," "The Colored Sport," will require the efforts of the entire company. The third act is another journey into the field of pure farcical comedy. The company includes William B. Wood and Frank Shepard, three sisters Merriam, William Kellar, William H. Mack, Dave Conroy and Phil McFarland, Frank Caverly, Tommy Sedgewick, Master Tommy Meade, Nellie Sennett, Ollie Ains, Hattie Vera, Helen Jewell, Edith Lorraine, Fanny Woodlett, and Dottie Wilson. Tickets for sale by all letter carriers, which can be exchanged at the Hyperion box office. "The Fatal Card" will play a return engagement here on Wednesday night. When "The Fatal Card" was last seen here, the regular dramatic season had hardly begun, but the profound impression created by the performance at that time should be the means of crowding the Hyperion to its utmost capacity Wednesday night. The cast and entire production are unchanged. Sale of seats now open.

Thomas Q. Seabrooke comes to the Hyperion on Friday and Saturday evenings this week and will be seen in his new play, "Baby Mine," a legitimate farcical comedy, which is guaranteed to make the most sour dispositioned person laugh. Sale of seats opens Wednesday.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

The great success of the opera last week which packed the immense capacity of the Grand Opera house is followed by a week of drama, two of the strongest plays ever presented here on former engagements a good an enviable record.

Commencing this evening and on Tuesday, Wednesday evenings "The Struggle of Life" will be presented. The play is one of the best of its class, and the long run it had in New York city at the Union Square theater, as well as the success it had on the road, go to show that it is the kind demanded by the people now-a-days. The play will be well staged. There are views of Battery Park, with New York harbor and Liberty enlightening the world in the distance, St. Patrick's cathedral and the adjoining square, Water street, and Rutgers' Slip, East River during a snow storm, with a view of a great sewer of the great city.

Matinees Tuesday and Wednesday. Prices, 10 cents, 20 cents and 25 cents. The election returns will be read from the stage of the Grand to-morrow night.

"The Cotton King" will be presented the last three days this week.

POLL'S WONDERLAND THEATER.

Another week of brilliant fun and frolic will be ushered in at Poll's Wonderland theater this afternoon. The bill is a remarkably strong one, judging from the names of the artists by whom it is to be presented, and the combination has been well styled an all-feature combination. Watson and Hutchings, who head the bill, have been several times with their own company, always proving a brilliant success, and there is perhaps no comedy duo on the stage that enjoys greater popularity. Then there is Edwin Latell, the great American musical comedy genius, who has been stirring up Boston for the past two weeks as the star of the bill at Keith's new opera house. He is to return there for a month, which is about as good an indication of his ability as anything can be. In addition the bill includes the three Bouffons, whom Oscar Hammerstein imported from Paris as a special feature of the opening of his new Olympia theater in New York, the Metropolitan trio, the Helston trio, Miss Carrie Tuttle, Baker and Boydell, and Miss Rita Durand. Ladies admitted afternoon for 10 cents to all parts of the house.

A Great Pianist.

Paderewski will give his piano recital at the Hyperion to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 p. m. Reginald DeKoven in the New York World says:

On the occasion of his second visit to this country I characterized M. Paderewski as the Napoleon of the piano-forte. I see no reason now to alter my opinion in any respect or to limit in any sense the wide reaching significance of the appellation as applied to him. He is now, as formerly, the master; absolute, in his way unique. Perhaps broader, more mature, even possibly more sincere in his art than two years ago, but over the same great artists we had learned to admire and love, the same Paderewski.

Sale of seats now open.

Entertainments.

HYPERION.

The Broadway Comedians in "Town Topics," a brand new farce-comedy, interpreted by a number of time-tried favorites, is the attraction to be presented for the benefit tendered to the New Haven Letter Carriers' association. The first act is genuine comedy, pure and wholesome; in this act a slight plot is seen to make its appearance, but, as the author says, there is not plot enough to give anyone a headache. The second act is a correct representation of Broadway, New York city, at the Hoffman house, scenery for which is carried complete by the company, is devoted almost entirely to individual specialties and big combinations by the company. "The Bloomer Girls," "The Bowery Boys and Girls," "The Four Country Rubes," "The Colored Sport," will require the efforts of the entire company. The third act is another journey into the field of pure farcical comedy. The company includes William B. Wood and Frank Shepard, three sisters Merriam, William Kellar, William H. Mack, Dave Conroy and Phil McFarland, Frank Caverly, Tommy Sedgewick, Master Tommy Meade, Nellie Sennett, Ollie Ains, Hattie Vera, Helen Jewell, Edith Lorraine, Fanny Woodlett, and Dottie Wilson. Tickets for sale by all letter carriers, which can be exchanged at the Hyperion box office. "The Fatal Card" will play a return engagement here on Wednesday night. When "The Fatal Card" was last seen here, the regular dramatic season had hardly begun, but the profound impression created by the performance at that time should be the means of crowding the Hyperion to its utmost capacity Wednesday night. The cast and entire production are unchanged. Sale of seats now open.

Thomas Q. Seabrooke comes to the Hyperion on Friday and Saturday evenings this week and will be seen in his new play, "Baby Mine," a legitimate farcical comedy, which is guaranteed to make the most sour dispositioned person laugh. Sale of seats opens Wednesday.

POLL'S WONDERLAND THEATER.

Another week of brilliant fun and frolic will be ushered in at Poll's Wonderland theater this afternoon. The bill is a remarkably strong one, judging from the names of the artists by whom it is to be presented, and the combination has been well styled an all-feature combination. Watson and Hutchings, who head the bill, have been several times with their own company, always proving a brilliant success, and there is perhaps no comedy duo on the stage that enjoys greater popularity. Then there is Edwin Latell, the great American musical comedy genius, who has been stirring up Boston for the past two weeks as the star of the bill at Keith's new opera house. He is to return there for a month, which is about as good an indication of his ability as anything can be. In addition the bill includes the three Bouffons, whom Oscar Hammerstein imported from Paris as a special feature of the opening of his new Olympia theater in New York, the Metropolitan trio, the Helston trio, Miss Carrie Tuttle, Baker and Boydell, and Miss Rita Durand. Ladies admitted afternoon for 10 cents to all parts of the house.

A Great Pianist.

Paderewski will give his piano recital at the Hyperion to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 p. m. Reginald DeKoven in the New York World says:

On the occasion of his second visit to this country I characterized M. Paderewski as the Napoleon of the piano-forte. I see no reason now to alter my opinion in any respect or to limit in any sense the wide reaching significance of the appellation as applied to him. He is now, as formerly, the master; absolute, in his way unique. Perhaps broader, more mature, even possibly more sincere in his art than two years ago, but over the same great artists we had learned to admire and love, the same Paderewski.

Sale of seats now open.

Entertainments.

HYPERION.

The Broadway Comedians in "Town Topics," a brand new farce-comedy, interpreted by a number of time-tried favorites, is the attraction to be presented for the benefit tendered to the New Haven Letter Carriers' association. The first act is genuine comedy, pure and wholesome; in this act a slight plot is seen to make its appearance, but, as the author says, there is not plot enough to give anyone a headache. The second act is a correct representation of Broadway, New York city, at the Hoffman house, scenery for which is carried complete by the company, is devoted almost entirely to individual specialties and big combinations by the company. "The Bloomer Girls," "The Bowery Boys and Girls," "The Four Country Rubes," "The Colored Sport," will require the efforts of the entire company. The third act is another journey into the field of pure farcical comedy. The company includes William B. Wood and Frank Shepard, three sisters Merriam, William Kellar, William H. Mack, Dave Conroy and Phil McFarland, Frank Caverly, Tommy Sedgewick, Master Tommy Meade, Nellie Sennett, Ollie Ains, Hattie Vera, Helen Jewell, Edith Lorraine, Fanny Woodlett, and Dottie Wilson. Tickets for sale by all letter carriers, which can be exchanged at the Hyperion box office. "The Fatal Card" will play a return engagement here on Wednesday night. When "The Fatal Card" was last seen here, the regular dramatic season had hardly begun, but the profound impression created by the performance at that time should be the means of crowding the Hyperion to its utmost capacity Wednesday night. The cast and entire production are unchanged. Sale of seats now open.

Thomas Q. Seabrooke comes to the Hyperion on Friday and Saturday evenings this week and will be seen in his new play, "Baby Mine," a legitimate farcical comedy, which is guaranteed to make the most sour dispositioned person laugh. Sale of seats opens Wednesday.

POLL'S WONDERLAND THEATER.

Another week of brilliant fun and frolic will be ushered in at Poll's Wonderland theater this afternoon. The bill is a remarkably strong one, judging from the names of the artists by whom it is to be presented, and the combination has been well styled an all-feature combination. Watson and Hutchings, who head the bill, have been several times with their own company, always proving a brilliant success, and there is perhaps no comedy duo on the stage that enjoys greater popularity. Then there is Edwin Latell, the great American musical comedy genius, who has been stirring up Boston for the past two weeks as the star of the bill at Keith's new opera house. He is to return there for a month, which is about as good an indication of his ability as anything can be. In addition the bill includes the three Bouffons, whom Oscar Hammerstein imported from Paris as a special feature of the opening of his new Olympia theater in New York, the Metropolitan trio, the Helston trio, Miss Carrie Tuttle, Baker and Boydell, and Miss Rita Durand. Ladies admitted afternoon for 10 cents to all parts of the house.

A Great Pianist.

Paderewski will give his piano recital at the Hyperion to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 p. m. Reginald DeKoven in the New York World says:

On the occasion of his second visit to this country I characterized M. Paderewski as the Napoleon of the piano-forte. I see no reason now to alter my opinion in any respect or to limit in any sense the wide reaching significance of the appellation as applied to him. He is now, as formerly, the master; absolute, in his way unique. Perhaps broader, more mature, even possibly more sincere in his art than two years ago, but over the same great artists we had learned to admire and love, the same Paderewski.

Sale of seats now open.

Entertainments.

HYPERION.

The Broadway Comedians in "Town Topics," a brand new farce-comedy, interpreted by a number of time-tried favorites, is the attraction to be presented for the benefit tendered to the New Haven Letter Carriers' association. The first act is genuine comedy, pure and wholesome; in this act a slight plot is seen to make its appearance, but, as the author says, there is not plot enough to give anyone a headache. The second act is a correct representation of Broadway, New York city, at the Hoffman house, scenery for which is carried complete by the company, is devoted almost entirely to individual specialties and big combinations by the company. "The Bloomer Girls," "The Bowery Boys and Girls," "The Four Country Rubes," "The Colored Sport," will require the efforts of the entire company. The third act is another journey into the field of pure farcical comedy. The company includes William B. Wood and Frank Shepard, three sisters Merriam, William Kellar, William H. Mack, Dave Conroy and Phil McFarland, Frank Caverly, Tommy Sedgewick, Master Tommy Meade, Nellie Sennett, Ollie Ains, Hattie Vera, Helen Jewell, Edith Lorraine, Fanny Woodlett, and Dottie Wilson. Tickets for sale by all letter carriers, which can be exchanged at the Hyperion box office. "The Fatal Card" will play a return engagement here on Wednesday night. When "The Fatal Card" was last seen here, the regular dramatic season had hardly begun, but the profound impression created by the performance at that time should be the means of crowding the Hyperion to its utmost capacity Wednesday night. The cast and entire production are unchanged. Sale of seats now open.

Thomas Q. Seabrooke comes to the Hyperion on Friday and Saturday evenings this week and will be seen in his new play, "Baby Mine," a legitimate farcical comedy, which is guaranteed to make the most sour dispositioned person laugh. Sale of seats opens Wednesday.

POLL'S WONDERLAND THEATER.

Another week of brilliant fun and frolic will be ushered in at Poll's Wonderland theater this afternoon. The bill is a remarkably strong one, judging from the names of the artists by whom it is to be presented, and the combination has been well styled an all-feature combination. Watson and Hutchings, who head the bill, have been several times with their own company, always proving a brilliant success, and there is perhaps no comedy duo on the stage that enjoys greater popularity. Then there is Edwin Latell, the great American musical comedy genius, who has been stirring up Boston for the past two weeks as the star of the bill at Keith's new opera house. He is to return there for a month, which is about as good an indication of his ability as anything can be. In addition the bill includes the three Bouffons, whom Oscar Hammerstein imported from Paris as a special feature of the opening of his new Olympia theater in New York, the Metropolitan trio, the Helston trio, Miss Carrie Tuttle, Baker and Boydell, and Miss Rita Durand. Ladies admitted afternoon for 10 cents to all parts of the house.

A Great Pianist.

Paderewski will give his piano recital at the Hyperion to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 p. m. Reginald DeKoven in the New York World says:

On the occasion of his second visit to this country I characterized M. Paderewski as the Napoleon of the piano-forte. I see no reason now to alter my opinion in any respect or to limit in any sense the wide reaching significance of the appellation as applied to him. He is now, as formerly, the master; absolute, in his way unique. Perhaps broader, more mature, even possibly more sincere in his art than two years ago, but over the same great artists we had learned to admire and love, the same Paderewski.

Sale of seats now open.

Entertainments.

HYPERION.

The Broadway Comedians in "Town Topics," a brand new farce-comedy, interpreted by a number of time-tried favorites, is the attraction to be presented for the benefit tendered to the New Haven Letter Carriers' association. The first act is genuine comedy, pure and wholesome; in this act a slight plot is seen to make its appearance, but, as the author says, there is not plot enough to give anyone a headache. The second act is a correct representation of Broadway, New York city, at the Hoffman house, scenery for which is carried complete by the company, is devoted almost entirely to individual specialties and big combinations by the company. "The Bloomer Girls," "The Bowery Boys and Girls," "The Four Country Rubes," "The Colored Sport," will require the efforts of the entire company. The third act is another journey into the field of pure farcical comedy. The company includes William B. Wood and Frank Shepard, three sisters Merriam, William Kellar, William H. Mack, Dave Conroy and Phil McFarland, Frank Caverly, Tommy Sedgewick, Master Tommy Meade, Nellie Sennett, Ollie Ains, Hattie Vera, Helen Jewell, Edith Lorraine, Fanny Woodlett, and Dottie Wilson. Tickets for sale by all letter carriers, which can be exchanged at the Hyperion box office. "The Fatal Card" will play a return engagement here on Wednesday night. When "The Fatal Card" was last seen here, the regular dramatic season had hardly begun, but the profound impression created by the performance at that time should be the means of crowding the Hyperion to its utmost capacity Wednesday night. The cast and entire production are unchanged. Sale of seats now open.

Thomas Q. Seabrooke comes to the Hyperion on Friday and Saturday evenings this week and will be seen in his new play, "Baby Mine," a legitimate farcical comedy, which is guaranteed to make the most sour dispositioned person laugh. Sale of seats opens Wednesday.

POLL'S WONDERLAND THEATER.

Another week of brilliant fun and frolic will be ushered in at Poll's Wonderland theater this afternoon. The bill is a remarkably strong one, judging from the names of the artists by whom it is to be presented, and the combination has been well styled an all-feature combination. Watson and Hutchings, who head the bill, have been several times with their own company, always proving a brilliant success, and there is perhaps no comedy duo on the stage that enjoys greater popularity. Then there is Edwin Latell, the great American musical comedy genius, who has been stirring up Boston for the past two weeks as the star of the bill at Keith's new opera house. He is to return there for a month, which is about as good an indication of his ability as anything can be. In addition the bill includes the three Bouffons, whom Oscar Hammerstein imported from Paris as a special feature of the opening of his new Olympia theater in New York, the Metropolitan trio, the Helston trio, Miss Carrie Tuttle, Baker and Boydell, and Miss Rita Durand. Ladies admitted afternoon for 10 cents to all parts of the house.

A Great Pianist.

Paderewski will give his piano recital at the Hyperion to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 p. m. Reginald DeKoven in the New York World says:

On the occasion of his second visit to this country I characterized M. Paderewski as the Napoleon of the piano-forte. I see no reason now to alter my opinion in any respect or to limit in any sense the wide reaching significance of the appellation as applied to him. He is now, as formerly, the master; absolute, in his way unique. Perhaps broader, more mature, even possibly more sincere in his art than two years ago, but over the same great artists we had learned to admire and love, the same Paderewski.

Sale of seats now open.

Entertainments.

HYPERION.

The Broadway Comedians in "Town Topics," a brand new farce-comedy, interpreted by a number of time-tried favorites, is the attraction to be presented for the benefit tendered to the New Haven Letter Carriers' association. The first act is genuine comedy, pure and wholesome; in this act a slight plot is seen to make its appearance, but, as the author says, there is not plot enough to give anyone a headache. The second act is a correct representation of Broadway, New York city, at the Hoffman house, scenery for which is carried complete by the company, is devoted almost entirely to individual specialties and big combinations by the company. "The Bloomer Girls," "The Bowery Boys and Girls," "The Four Country Rubes," "The Colored Sport," will require the efforts of the entire company. The third act is another journey into the field of pure farcical comedy. The company includes William B. Wood and Frank Shepard, three sisters Merriam, William Kellar, William H. Mack, Dave Conroy and Phil McFarland, Frank Caverly, Tommy Sedgewick, Master Tommy Meade, Nellie Sennett, Ollie Ains, Hattie Vera, Helen Jewell, Edith Lorraine, Fanny Woodlett, and Dottie Wilson. Tickets for sale by all letter carriers, which can be exchanged at the Hyperion box office. "The Fatal Card" will play a return engagement here on Wednesday night. When "The Fatal Card" was last seen here, the regular dramatic season had hardly begun, but the profound impression created by the performance at that time should be the means of crowding the Hyperion to its utmost capacity Wednesday night. The cast and entire production are unchanged. Sale of seats now open.

Thomas Q. Seabrooke comes to the Hyperion on Friday and Saturday evenings this week and will be seen in his new play, "Baby Mine," a legitimate farcical comedy, which is guaranteed to make the most sour dispositioned person laugh. Sale of seats opens Wednesday.

POLL'S WONDERLAND THEATER.

Another week of brilliant fun and frolic will be ushered in at Poll's Wonderland theater this afternoon. The bill is a remarkably strong one, judging from the names of the artists by whom it is to be presented, and the combination has been well styled an all-feature combination. Watson and Hutchings, who head the bill, have been several times with their own company, always proving a brilliant success, and there is perhaps no comedy duo on the stage that enjoys greater popularity. Then there is Edwin Latell, the great American musical comedy genius, who has been stirring up Boston for the past two weeks as the star of the bill at Keith's new opera house. He is to return there for a month, which is about as good an indication of his ability as anything can be. In addition the bill includes the three Bouffons, whom Oscar Hammerstein imported from Paris as a special feature of the opening of his new Olympia theater in New York, the Metropolitan trio, the Helston trio, Miss Carrie Tuttle, Baker and Boydell, and Miss Rita Durand. Ladies admitted afternoon for 10 cents to all parts of the house.

A Great Pianist.

Paderewski will give his piano recital at the Hyperion to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 p. m. Reginald DeKoven in the New York World says:

On the occasion of his second visit to this country I characterized M. Paderewski as the Napoleon of the piano-forte. I see no reason now to alter my opinion in any respect or to limit in any sense the wide reaching significance of the appellation as applied to him. He is now, as formerly, the master; absolute, in his way unique. Perhaps broader, more mature, even possibly more sincere in his art than two years ago, but over the same great artists we had learned to admire and love, the same Paderewski.

Sale of seats now open.

Entertainments.

HYPERION.

The Broadway Comedians in "Town Topics," a brand new farce-comedy, interpreted by a number of time-tried favorites, is the attraction to be presented for the benefit tendered to the New Haven Letter Carriers' association. The first act is genuine comedy, pure and wholesome; in this act a slight plot is seen to make its appearance, but, as the author says, there is not plot enough to give anyone a headache. The second act is a correct representation of Broadway, New York city, at the Hoffman house, scenery for which is carried complete by the company, is devoted almost entirely to individual specialties and big combinations by the company. "The Bloomer Girls," "The Bowery Boys and Girls," "The Four Country Rubes," "The Colored Sport," will require the efforts of the entire company. The third act is another journey into the field of pure farcical comedy. The company includes William B. Wood and Frank Shepard, three sisters Merriam, William Kellar, William H. Mack, Dave Conroy and Phil McFarland, Frank Caverly, Tommy Sedgewick, Master Tommy Meade, Nellie Sennett, Ollie Ains, Hattie Vera, Helen Jewell, Edith Lorraine, Fanny Woodlett, and Dottie Wilson. Tickets for sale by all letter carriers, which can be exchanged at the Hyperion box office. "The Fatal Card" will play a return engagement here on Wednesday night. When "The Fatal Card" was last seen here, the regular dramatic season had hardly begun, but the profound impression created by the performance at that time should be the means of crowding the Hyperion to its utmost capacity Wednesday night. The cast and entire production are unchanged. Sale of seats now open.

Thomas Q. Seabrooke comes to the Hyperion on Friday and Saturday evenings this week and will be seen in his new play, "Baby Mine," a legitimate farcical comedy, which is guaranteed to make the most sour dispositioned person laugh. Sale of seats opens Wednesday.

POLL'S WONDERLAND THEATER.

Another week of brilliant fun and frolic will be ushered in at Poll's Wonderland theater this afternoon. The bill is a remarkably strong one, judging from the names of the artists by whom it is to be presented, and the combination has been well styled an all-feature combination. Watson and Hutchings, who head the bill, have been several times with their own company, always proving a brilliant success, and there is perhaps no comedy duo on the stage that enjoys greater popularity. Then there is Edwin Latell, the great American musical comedy genius, who has been stirring up Boston for the past two weeks as the star of the bill at Keith's new opera house. He is to return there for a month, which is about as good an indication of his ability as anything can be. In addition the bill includes the three Bouffons, whom Oscar Hammerstein imported from Paris as a special feature of the opening of his new Olympia theater in New York, the Metropolitan trio, the Helston trio, Miss Carrie Tuttle, Baker and Boydell, and Miss Rita Durand. Ladies admitted afternoon for 10 cents to all parts of the house.

A Great Pianist.

Paderewski will give his piano recital at the Hyperion to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 p. m. Reginald DeKoven in the New York World says:

On the occasion of his second visit to this country I characterized M. Paderewski as the Napoleon of the piano-forte. I see no reason now to alter my opinion in any respect or to limit in any sense the wide reaching significance of the appellation as applied to him. He is now, as formerly, the master; absolute, in his way unique. Perhaps broader, more mature, even possibly more sincere in his art than two years ago, but over the same great artists we had learned to admire and love, the same Paderewski.

Sale of seats now open.

Entertainments.

HYPERION.

The Broadway Comedians in "Town Topics," a brand new farce-comedy, interpreted by a number of time-tried favorites, is the attraction to be presented for the benefit tendered to the New Haven Letter Carriers' association. The first act is genuine comedy, pure and wholesome; in this act a slight plot is seen to make its appearance, but, as the author says, there is not plot enough to give anyone a headache. The second act is a correct representation of Broadway, New York city, at the Hoffman house, scenery for which is carried complete by the company, is devoted almost entirely to individual specialties and big combinations by the company. "The Bloomer Girls," "The Bowery Boys and Girls," "The Four Country Rubes," "The Colored Sport," will require the efforts of the entire company. The third act is another journey into the field of pure farcical comedy. The company includes William B. Wood and Frank Shepard, three sisters Merriam, William Kellar, William H. Mack, Dave Conroy and Phil McFarland, Frank Caverly, Tommy Sedgewick, Master Tommy Meade